MEDIA GUIDELINES INFORMATION

OVERVIEW
During the season, updated team information is available by contacting either member of the Shock Public Relations Department. The Shock organization welcomes media coverage and will make every effort to accommodate any related needs.

CREDENTIALS
Official Shock media passes (or WNBA passes when appropriate) are required for admission to Shock games and for admission to media facilities inside the BOK Center. These passes are working passes and are intended for the use of working media members only. For credential information, please contact Pardeep Toor.

ALL REQUESTS 5 HOURS PRIOR TO GAME TIME
Please make certain all requests for credentials are confirmed by the Public Relations Department prior to arriving at the arena. Credentials may be obtained 2.5 hours prior to each game at the press gate, located outside the loading dock media entrance of the arena. Credentials must be visibly worn at all times and are non-transferable.

PHOTOGRAPHERS
Accredited photographers will be permitted courtside in the BOK Center and will be stationed in one of two quadrants- either the west side of the basket stanchion on the north end of the floor or the east side of the basket stanchion on the north end of the floor.

ABSOLUTELY NO TRIPODS ALLOWED
Photographers must be seated stationary, at least four feet behind the baseline at all times. Photographers are not permitted on the court at any time during the game and cannot shoot from public walkways or gathering areas. Orders for strobe lights or credentials should be requested through the Shock PR Office. Photo credentials will be issued in the same manner as other credentials, although requests should be submitted by the photo editor. Official Shock photographers' passes allow admission to the BOK Center, the media room and to the locker rooms. The recommended film speed under all conditions is ASA 400. Recommended films are: Kodak Tri-X (for black and white), Kodacolor 400 (for color negative film for prints) and Ektachrome 400 (for color transparency slide film). When photographing events on the floor (lighting tends to be less in the stands), the recommended exposure is: 1 /125 of a second at F 5.6 for evening or nighttime events. Equipment not needed during the game must be stored off court. One additional camera can be stored either beside or directly behind the photographer. Credentials for cinematographers should be requested through the Shock PR Office and are available on a game-by-game basis. With credentials, cinematographers will be allowed courtside.

RUBBER LENS SHADES
In order to reduce the risk of injury to players, rubber lens shades are now required for all still photographers, broadcasters, news and entertainment video and film crews who are authorized to shoot WNBA game action. Any additional light sources must be either removed or covered with bubble wrap.

Rubber lens covers are available by contacting:
Robert's Distributors, Inc.
255 S. Meridian Street
Indianapolis, IN 46225
(800) 726-5544

PARKING
Members of the media who have been issued credentials will be granted parking privileges in press parking area, located on the corner of First and Boulder - Lot D.

MEDIA WORKROOM
The media workroom is located next to the Shock locker room by concourse 108. The room is open 2.5 hours prior to tip-off and features comfortable work areas for your convenience. Telephone and fax service is available, as well as game notes, media guides, statistics, post-game quotes and out-oftown scores. Snacks and beverages are also provided for working media members, and admission is by official Shock passes. Press credentials are required for admission into the media room. Should you need any additional assistance or service, please do not hesitate to ask Pardeep Toor.

PRE- AND POST-GAME INTERVIEWS
In accordance with WNBA policy, both the Shock and visiting locker rooms will be open to accredited media members for a 45 minute period prior to each game (6:00-6:45 for a 7:30 p.m. game) and 10 minutes following the conclusion of each game. It is recommended that any interview lasting longer than five minutes in duration be arranged in advance through the Shock PR department (any live television pre- or post-game interviews should also be arranged in advance through the PR department). ONLY working media members with valid credentials will be admitted to the locker room. No still photography is allowed in either teams' locker room. Cell phones are not permitted in locker rooms. ABSOLUTELY NO AUTOGRAPHS ALLOWED DURING MEDIA ACCESS PERIOD.

INTERVIEW ROOM
Tulsa Shock Head Coach Nolan Richardson will meet the media just outside the Shock locker room, approximately 10 minutes after the conclusion of each game. The Shock's locker room will be open to the media immediately after Richardson's post-game press conference.

GAME NOTES, STATISTICS & STATISTICIANS
Game notes and statistics are available in the Shock media room 2.5 hours prior to each game. Statistics are distributed to the working media following each quarter. Post-game quotes and notes are distributed as quickly as possible at the conclusion of each game. Local statisticians are available to assist visiting television and radio broadcasters and can be arranged by contacting the Shock Public Relations Department several days in advance. Once a request is made, the statisticians must be compensated whether they are used or not.

FAX SERVICE
The Shock will provide complementary fax service to members of the working media following each game.

AUTOGRAPHS
SEEKING AUTOGRAPHS OR SOUVENIR ITEMS FROM PLAYERS OR COACHES IS STRICTLY PROHIBITED AND SUBJECT TO FORFEITURE OF CREDENTIAL.

PRESS ROW
Seating at the Shock courtside press row is absolutely limited to media persons covering that particular game. Space is by reservation prior to noon of game day. Others will be accommodated in the press overflow area on a space-available basis.

TELEVISION
Two games will be televised nationally on ESPN2, six games on Fox Sports Oklahoma and 11 on Cox Cable. All games will be broadcast over the internet at www.tulsashock. com.

PRACTICE POLICY
All Shock practices and shootarounds during the 2010 WNBA season will be open to the media from start to finish. Players and coaches will be available for interviews following each practice session. Please contact Pardeep Toor in the Shock Public Relations Office for further information

In 1982, Cameron received his B.A. in history from Dartmouth College in Hanover, New Hampshire. He has three daughters, two of whom play basketball and one dances ballet.

LEADERSHIP

David Box

Majority Owner

David Box is President and CEO of Box Ventures. As a graduate of the University of Oklahoma and a native of Oklahoma, Box has created a diverse portfolio of companies that include: Box Talent Agency, Box Real Estate, Box Ventures, The Greens Country Club and Cameron – Box Sports, which includes an interest in the Tulsa Talons arena football team. From his humble beginnings as a concert promoter to currently employing over 120 team members, Box is a true entrepreneur.

Recently celebrating its 23rd anniversary, Box Talent agency is a driving force behind Tulsa and Oklahoma City's entertainment industry. Over the years David has produced a number of highly successful concerts for national artists that have included Toby Keith, John Mayer and the Dixie Chicks. David is the "go to" guy for everything entertainment and has served as a consultant for George Shinn, owner of the New Orleans Hornet's and Willie's Place – a venue owned by Willie Nelson. The agency is well known throughout the region and represents many of Oklahoma and Texas's most requested party bands. As exclusive booking agents for multiple clubs within the region, Box Talent is always looking for new artists and venues with a fresh prospective.

With over one million square feet of real estate in Oklahoma, Box is consistently looking to expand on his diverse portfolio. Box's holdings include property on Norman's historical Campus Corner, key commercial space in Oklahoma City's up and coming district's that include Midtown, Western Avenue, and 23rd Street. Additionally, Box is majority owner of the Greens Country Club in Oklahoma City. The club includes an 18-hole championship golf course, state of the art tennis facility, a beautiful 30,000 square foot clubhouse and three swimming pools.

In addition to his business interest, Box is active in his community. He has served as Vice-Chair on the Integris Young Philanthropist Board, keynote speaker at many local chamber events, and has produced a wide range of benefit/charity events, including Rolling Stone's magazine Nationwide College tour, headlined by Dave Matthews and Big Head Todd for victims of the Oklahoma City Bombing.

LEADERSHIP

Steve Swetoha

President

Steve Swetoha is the President of the Shock where he oversees the franchise's entire business operations including sales, marketing, advertising, broadcasting, community relations, finance, game entertainment, customer retention, youth basketball and operations. He brings more than 20 years of sports marketing, sales, promotions, customer service and business operations to Tulsa.

Swetoha most recently served as the Executive Director of the ACC Football Championship in Charlotte, North Carolina where he was responsible for all of the sales and marketing along with planning the entire ACC Football Championship games to be played in Charlotte in 2010 and 2011.

Swetoha began his career as the director of inside sales for the NHL's Pittsburgh Penguins and was the Vice President of Sales and Operations for the IHL's Cleveland Lumberjacks. He was the Director of Sales for RDV Sports which is the ownership entity of the Orlando Magic and Orlando Miracle of the WNBA. Swetoha has also worked with the Jacksonville Jaguars where he was responsible for the sales and marketing of suites, club seats, season and group tickets along with customer retention and volunteer sales programs.

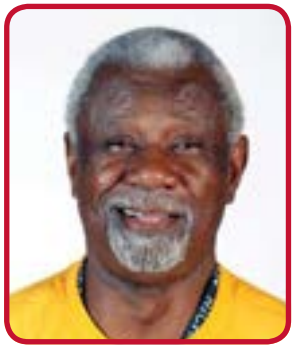
Swetoha also served at the Senior Vice President of Sales and Service with the Charlotte Bobcats. During his tenure with the Bobcats and Sting he was responsible for suite sales, premium sales, season and group tickets. He also managed customer retention, premium services, ticket operations and special events for the Bobcats and Sting. Swetoha was the organization's first employees in 2003 and along with his responsibilities was the Vice President of Business Operations with the Charlotte Sting, that included responsibilities in corporate partnerships, marketing, communications, community relations and finance.

Swetoha was an active member of the Charlotte community serving on boards such as the Second Harvest Food Bank, Community Schools and was a volunteer at St. Matthew church. Swetoha was a part-time adjunct professor at Johnson and Wales University in the Sports Entertainment and Event Program of the Hospitality College.

Swetoha received his Bachelors of Science degree with an emphasis in Sport Management from Robert Morris University and received his Master's Degree in Sports Leadership from Duquesne University.

Swetoha has one son, Matthew who is 13.

LEADERSHIP



Nolan Richardson

Coach and General Manager

College basketball Hall of Fame coach Nolan Richardson was named head coach and general manager of the Shock on October 20, 2009.

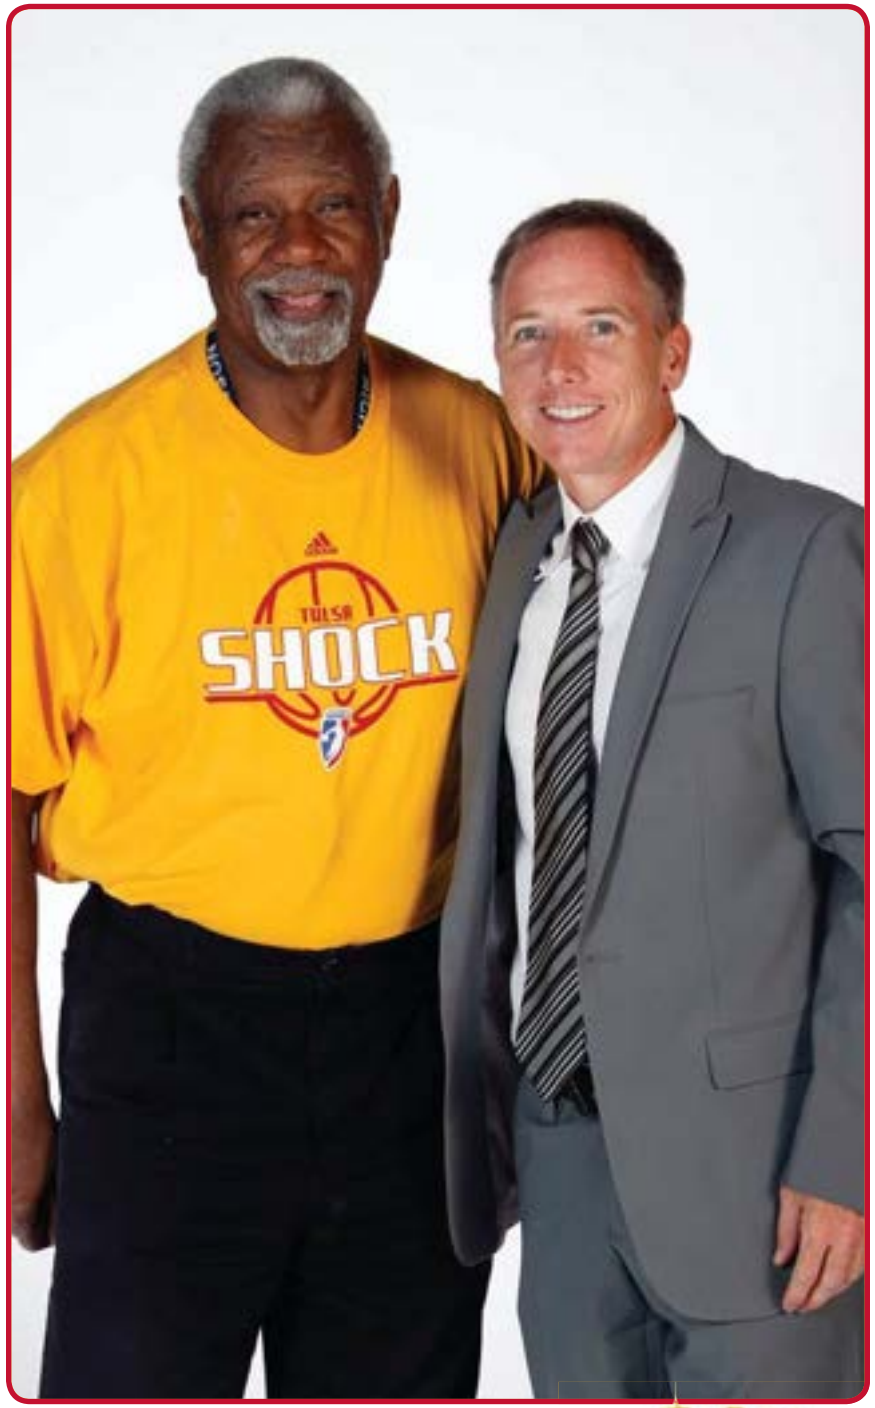
Richardson has been coaching basketball for over 40 years and is the only coach in history to have won a championship at every college level: the National Junior College Tournament (1980), National Invitational Tournament (1981) and NCAA Tournament (1994) .

Richardson began his coaching career at Bowie High School in El Paso, Texas. He then moved to Western Texas College, where he won the National Junior College championship in 1980. He was the head coach at Tulsa from 1981 to 1985, leading Tulsa to the NIT championship in 1981 and compiling a 119-37 record over five seasons. In 1985, Richardson became the head coach at the University of Arkansas, where he gained national recognition.

Richardson took the University of Arkansas to the Final Four three times, losing to Duke in the semifinals in 1990, winning the National Championship in 1994 against Duke, and losing in the Championship game to UCLA in 1995. He was named the National Coach of the Year in 1994. His teams typically played an up tempo game with intense pressure defense - a style that was known as "40 Minutes of Hell." He is the winningest coach in Arkansas history, compiling a 389-169 record in 17 seasons.

From 2005 to 2007, Richardson served as the head coach of the Panamanian National Team. In March 2007, Richardson was named as the head coach of the Mexican National Team.

Richardson was born in El Paso, Texas, and raised in El Paso's "Segundo Barrio" or "Second Ward", and speaks Spanish fluently. He played collegiately at Texas Western College (now the University of Texas at El Paso) playing for two years under the future Basketball Hall of Famer Don Haskins.



Wayne Stehlik

Assistant Coach

Wayne Stehlik spent over 25 years in college athletics. A long-time assistant under Nolan Richardson at the University of Arkansas, Stehlik spent 17 seasons (1985-2002) at Arkansas, which were highlighted by 12 20-win campaigns, four 30-win seasons, three Final Fours and the 1994 NCAA National Championship with a 31-3 record. Arkansas averaged 27 wins per season during the decade of the 1990s and their 270 wins from 1990-99 were more than all but four programs in the NCAA Division I ranks.

From 2002-2005, Wayne served as the Director of Development for women's athletics at the University of Arkansas. His coaching experiences runs deep as he has also served as the Head Basketball Coach at Baker University in Baldwin City Kansas, following assistant positions at University of Kansas (M.S.1982) and Nebraska Wesleyan University.(B.S 1979)

Immediately, prior to coming on board with the Tulsa Shock, he served as Activities Director for the Fayetteville High School Athletic Department, in Fayetteville, Arkansas. The FHS Athletic Department ranked as one of the Top 20 high school athletic programs in the country, according to Sports Illustrated. In addition to his work at Fayetteville High School, Stehlik also started his own company called Play 2 Win Athletic Consulting. P2W is designed to help Student-Athletes, Parents, Coaches and Administrators adapt to the ever changing world of 21st century athletics. He was also instrumental in initiating the NWA Tip-Off Club, of which he currently serves as President.

Wayne is married to Tracey Mays Stehlik and they have two daughters, Mollie and Maggie.

LEADERSHIP

Tammy A. Bagby

Director of Basketball Operations and Assistant Coach

Tammy Bagby has over 15 years of professional and collegiate coaching experience. Bagby was an assistant women's basketball coach for three years at Morgan State University (MEAC) and for seven years at Clark Atlanta University (SIAC).

She won a 1999 S.I.A.C Conference Championship under head coach Angelyne Brown. Bagby helped produce an All-American guard, a conference assist leader and shooting guards who reached the 1,000pts+ Club.

In 2007, Bagby continued her assistant coaching success at Tennessee State University (OVC), where her teams earned two winning season during her two-year stint.

SHOCK HISTORY

A Championship Tradition Comes To Tulsa...

On October 20, 2009, it was officially announced that the Detroit Shock would be moving to Tulsa for the 2010 WNBA season, and with the team came a historic winning tradition. Three WNBA championships (2003, 2006 and 2008), four conference championships and seven consecutive playoff appearances accompany the team for its inaugural season in Tulsa.

Five players from last year's Shock team made the trip to Tulsa: Plenette Pierson, Olayinka Sanni, Kara Braxton, Alexis Hornbuckle and Shavonte Zellous. Pierson, a former sixth woman of the year in Detroit and a seven year veteran, played on two Shock championship teams (2006 and 2008) and has become the natural leader of the newly assembled Shock team in Tulsa.

Pierson's front court mate from Detroit, Kara Braxton, is looking to improve upon a career season in 2009 in Detroit. Along with Sanni, the three front court work horses are joined about the young and dynamic duo of Hornbuckle and Zellous who are looking to make the jump into the WNBA elite this year.

With much of the other components of the roster overturned, a new team will take the floor in 2010, but the championship aspirations will remain as the team embarks on a new journey with a new identity but with the same expectation – winning.

MISCELLANEOUS

ABOUT THE CITY OF TULSA

Tulsa is nestled in the northeastern quadrant of Oklahoma, right in the heart of "Green Country." The rolling green hills and wooded terrain of the city lies at an elevation of 700 feet above sea level and offers a temperate climate. Tulsans enjoy 227 days of sunshine a year and an average daily temperature of 61 degrees. The rainfall average is approximately 40 inches, and continually changing conditions occur in the city during all four seasons.

Our city boasts a widely diversified business base, including aerospace, telecommunications, manufacturing, construction, high technology, healthcare, education, transportation and energy.

Tulsa, one of "America's Most Livable Communities," is known as the Mecca for arts in Oklahoma. Art deco masterpieces are prevalent in many of our downtown buildings and churches. Spectacular works of art dot the trails of our beautiful River Parks. From the Tulsa Ballet and Tulsa Opera, to Broadway plays and musicals at the Performing Arts Center, to the Philbrook and the largest collection of Western American art at the Gilcrease, Tulsa's rich cultural legacy greatly enhances our citizen's quality of life.

The Tulsa Port of Catoosa is acclaimed as one of the largest, most inland river-ports in the United States. The Tulsa International Airport offers direct service to most major U.S. cities and is another important contributor to our economic growth.

Ten higher education facilities serve the metropolitan Tulsa area. Options range from community college and vocational studies to undergraduate, graduate, and professional degree programs at both public and private universities.

BOK CENTER

The BOK Center, or Bank of Oklahoma Center, is a 19,199-seat multi-purpose arena and a primary indoor sports and event venue in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Designed to accommodate arena football, hockey, basketball, concerts, and similar events, the facility was built at a cost of $178 million in public funds and an additional $18 million in privately-funded upgrades. Ground was broken on August 31, 2005 and a ribbon cutting involving Tulsa musicians Garth Brooks and Hanson took place on August 30, 2008.

Designed by Cesar Pelli, the architect of the Petronas Towers in Malaysia, the BOK Center is the flagship project of Tulsa County's Vision 2025 long-range development initiative.

HISTORY

On April 24, 1996, women's basketball announced "We Got Next" as the NBA Board of Governors approved the concept of a Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) to begin play in June of 1997.

Since that day in 1996 there have been many firsts for the WNBA:
Val Ackerman -- the first president of the WNBA
Sheryl Swoopes -- the first player signed to the WNBA
Cynthia Cooper -- the league's first Most Valuable Player
Houston Comets -- the first WNBA Champions
Lisa Leslie -- the first WNBA player to dunk (7/30/02 vs. Miami)
Lauren Jackson – the first international player to win MVP (2007)
Candace Parker – the first rookie to earn the league's MVP honor (2008)
Sylvia Fowles – the first goaltending call (vs. LA 6/3/2008)

The inaugural WNBA season tipped off on June 21, 1997, with the New York Liberty taking on the Los Angeles Sparks at the Great Western Forum in Inglewood, California. A crowd of 14,284 watched as Sparks' guard Penny Toler scored the first basket in WNBA history. The Liberty defeated the Sparks, 67-57.

A GROWING GAME

The influence of the WNBA can be seen in the explosive growth of organized women's basketball over the past 12 seasons. An estimated 100 million women play basketball worldwide, and our league reflects this trend, featuring 23 international players from 16 countries and territories at the end of the 2008 season. Female AAU youth basketball participation has increased +277 percent since 1990 (from 28,840 to 108,758 players). Female high school basketball participation has increased 18 percent since 1990 (from 387,802 to 456,967 players). ALL-STAR GAME

This summer's marquee event "WNBA vs. USA Basketball: The Stars at the Sun" will showcase the world's best female basketball players under one roof when the WNBA's top talent faces the USA Basketball Women's National Team. This special event, hosted by the WNBA and the Connecticut Sun, will take place at the Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, CT on Saturday, July 10. ESPN will broadcast the game with tip-off set for 3:30 p.m. ET. The USA Basketball squad will be coached Geno Auriemma.

The 2009 WNBA All-Star Game was held at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. on Saturday, July 25. It was the ninth such game in league history, and second played at Mohegan Sun, and was played in front of a sellout crowd of 9,518. The West beat the East 130-118 in the highest scoring All-Star Game in WNBA history. Swin Cash of the Seattle Storm claimed MVP honors. Cash, who tallied an All-Star record 22 points on 10-of-16, was one of five former UConn Huskies who were participating in the game.

INSPIRING COACH

The Inspiring Coach Award is an annual honor introduced in 2007 to honor coaches who have positively influenced athletes across numerous levels and whose achievements leave an indelible mark on sports as a whole. The University of Tennessee's Pat Summitt earned the honor in 2009 for her profound impact on female athletes and her demonstrated commitment, passion, and dedication to work, family, and community. Previous winners include Kay Yow and Jody Conradt.

INSPIRING WOMEN

The Inspiring Woman Award is an annual honor that celebrates an individual who, on a daily basis, demonstrates her ability to inspire others through her commitment, passion and dedication to work, family, and community. Past honorees include Emmy-award winning journalist Cokie Roberts, Good Morning America's Robin Roberts, Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice, and the WNBA All-Decade Team.

WNBA HISTORY

DAWN STALEY AWARD

The Dawn Staley Community Leadership Award was announced in 2006 and is now presented annually to the player who best exemplifies the characteristics of a leader in the community and reflects Staley's contagious leadership, spirit, charitable efforts and love for the game. Tamika Catchings won the inaugural award in 2007 while Tamika Raymond was named the winner for 2008. A member of the WNBA's All-Decade Team, Staley, who retired following the 2006 season, established herself as one of the greatest ambassadors in women's basketball history, while also demonstrating outstanding leadership qualities as a coach on the collegiate level and as a philanthropist and humanitarian.

MARKETING

The WNBA maintains marketing, promotional, and media partnerships with a variety of top companies, each with varying levels of activation and integration in league operations.

MARKETING PARTNERS

adidas, EA SPORTS, Gatorade, HP, Kia Motors, NIKE, Peak, Pitney Bowes, Russell, Southwest, Spalding, Starwood, T-Mobile, Toyota

PROMOTIONAL PARTNERS

1-800-Flowers, Booz Allen, Meredith,General Mills, OfficeMax, Protégé

MEDIA PARTNERS

IHOP, Merck, Sanofi Pasteur

New partners in 2008 included such major companies as Kia Motors, IHOP and Pitney Bowes. HP, Starwood Hotels and Resorts and "Got Milk?" all joined the WNBA as partners for the 2009 season.

The WNBA's marketing partners utilize the league to support women's sports and reach its strong fan base of women, families, and young girls through advertising in WNBA nationally televised games, national promotions, player endorsements, and special events. Through the WNBA's extensive, highly integrated relationship with adidas, the sporting goods and apparel giant not only serves as the official outfitter of the WNBA – having unveiled new uniforms across the league in 2007 – but also as the presenter of the 2007, 2008, and 2009 WNBA Drafts and in 2008 became the first-ever presenting partner of the WNBA's entire postseason, including both the playoffs and Finals.

Two WNBA teams entered the 2009 season as forerunners in the league's Marquee Partnership program, which includes multiyear deals featuring branded sponsorship of game jerseys – the Phoenix Mercury partnering with LifeLock, a giant in the identity theft industry, and the Los Angeles Sparks partnering with Farmers Insurance Group.

ATTENDANCE / TV RATINGS

The WNBA concluded the 2009 regular season with its third consecutive year of increased attendance and second consecutive year of increased viewership on ESPN2. The WNBA regular season on ESPN2 concluded with an average of 269,000 viewers, up 8 percent versus 2008 (248,000 viewers). Regular-season games on ESPN2 saw increases in key demographics, including men 18-34 (+9 percent), men 18-49 (+14 percent), and men 23-54 (+23 percent).

For the 2009 WNBA Finals presented by adidas, average viewership on ESPN2 jumped 76 percent from 2008. The five-game series featuring the Indiana Fever and Phoenix Mercury also featured three sellouts and the highest total attendance figure (82,018) in WNBA Finals history.

The WNBA has one of the top five Facebook fanbases among sports leagues, with more than 275,000 fans (www.Facebook.com/wnba).

The WNBA's broadcast coverage in 2009 included live national telecasts of 29 regular-season and postseason contests on ESPN2 and ABC, and another 50 games on NBA TV, as well as games streamed on ESPN360.com.

In addition, fans watched more than two million streams of live and archived games through WNBA LiveAccess, a new feature on WNBA.com that provided fans with free access to more than 200 live game Webcasts - the league's most comprehensive offering - throughout the season.

In July 2007, the WNBA signed a new, eight-year TV deal with ESPN that tips off in 2009 and runs through 2016, the WNBA's 20th season. The agreement, which calls for ABC, ESPN and ESPN2 to telecast WNBA games, includes rights fees, a first for any women's pro team sports league in the U.S.

GLOBAL REACH

Now in its second decade, the WNBA has a wide impact on overseas markets. In 2009, for the third straight year, WNBA games and programming reached a record 203 countries in 32 languages, surpassing the previous total of 198 countries. Included were television agreements in six new countries: Argentina, Bulgaria, Jamaica, Pan Africa, South Korea and China. In addition, for the fourth consecutive year, fans in China were able to view WNBA action via live Webcasts on NBA.com/china.

WNBA rosters for the 2009 season featured 18 international players from 11 countries and territories. Among the league's international contingent are the Seattle Storm's Lauren Jackson (Australia), Indiana Fever's Tammy Sutton-Brown (Canada), San Antonio Silver Stars' Sophia Young (St. Vincent), and Los Angeles Sparks' Ticha Penicheiro (Portugal).

OWNERSHIP

Seven WNBA teams now fall under the independent ownership model: the Atlanta Dream, Chicago Sky, Connecticut Sun, Los Angeles Sparks, Seattle Storm, Tulsa Shock and Washington Mystics.

With the announcement on Oct. 20, 2009 that the Detroit Shock would relocate to Tulsa, Okla., Tulsa Pro Hoops L.L.C. will begin play in 2010 and is led by Bill Cameron and David Box. Force 10 Hoops, L.L.C., the entity owned by Seattle businesswomen and civic leaders Anne Levinson, Ginny Gilder, Lisa Brummel and Dawn Trudeau, purchased the Seattle Storm on Feb. 28, 2008. In October, 2009, Kathy Betty purchased the Atlanta Dream. In addition, the Los Angeles Sparks opened the 2007 season with new ownership after Kathy Goodman and Carla Christofferson, two long-time season ticket holders, bought the Sparks on Dec. 7, 2006. They joined Sheila Johnson's Washington Mystics, Michael Alter's Chicago Sky, and the Mohegan Tribe's Connecticut Sun as independently owned WNBA franchises.

Seven women serve as owners of WNBA teams: Dr. Sheila Johnson (Washington Mystics); Kathy Goodman and Carla Christofferson (Los Angeles Sparks); Kathy Betty (Atlanta); and Anne Levinson, Ginny Gilder, Lisa Brummel and Dawn Trudeau (Seattle Storm). An eighth, musical artist Michelle Williams, formerly of "Destiny's Child," is a minority owner of the Chicago Sky.

Johnson, a co-founder of Black Entertainment Television, became the WNBA's first African-American female owner on May 24, 2005 when she joined Ted Leonsis' Lincoln Holdings LLC, which in turn purchased the Washington Mystics from Washington Wizards' owner Abe Pollin.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

Diana Taurasi won both the 2009 WNBA MVP award and the 2009 WNBA Finals MVP award. Lisa Leslie of the Los Angeles Sparks became the first WNBA player to capture the regular-season, All-Star and Finals MVP awards during the 2001 season.

In 2008, Candace Parker became the first WNBA player to win Rookie of the Year and Most Valuable Player of the Year in the same season. The first selection in the 2008 WNBA Draft, she earned both honors after leading the league in double-doubles and rebounds per game, while also ranking second in blocks per game and fourth in points per game. She also became just the second player (Lisa Leslie), to dunk in a WNBA game.

While Diana Taurasi of the Phoenix Mercury won her first WNBA MVP award in 2009, there have been several repeat honorees. Lisa Leslie of the Los Angeles Sparks earned the award in 2006, 2001, and 2004. Leslie joined the Houston Comets' Sheryl Swoopes as the only players in WNBA history to capture MVP honors three times. Two players have won the award twice in a career: Houston's Cynthia Cooper (1997, 1998) and Seattle's Lauren Jackson (2003, 2007). The others to capture MVP honors are Yolanda Griffith (then with Sacramento in 1999) and Los Angeles' Candace Parker (2008, when she became the first rookie in league history to earn the award).

Taurasi rewrote the WNBA scoring records in 2006 when she led the league with 25.3 points per contest, became the first WNBA player to top 800 points in a single season (860), and the single-season mark for three-point field-goals (121) and the single-game mark for points (47, a number later equaled by the Storm's Lauren Jackson in 2007).

There is only one player who has reached 6,000 points in her WNBA career. Lisa Leslie, who retired following the 2009 season, ranks at the top of the WNBA's all-time scoring leaders with 6,263 points. The players who have passed the 5,000 point plateau are Tina Thompson, Katie Smith, and Lauren Jackson.

Lauren Jackson became the youngest (26 years, 77 days) and fastest (209 games) to score her 4,000th career point on July 27, 2007. However, that record was broken when Diana Taurasi reached the same milestone on July 27, 2009 in just 197 games.

Sheryl Swoopes, who earned MVP and Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2000 and 2002, made WNBA history with the league's first triple-double (14 points, 15 rebounds, 10 assists) vs. the Detroit Shock on July 27, 1999.

Through WNBA Cares, the WNBA is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people, with a special emphasis on education, youth and family development and health and wellness.

WNBA GREEN

The WNBA is committed to a long-term environmental plan through the implementation of sustainable business practices and procedures that decrease the league's carbon footprint and contribute to a clean, healthy environment. The WNBA Greening Initiative is an innovative program designed to reduce the environmental impact of the league's operations and events.

BREAST HEALTH AWARENESS

The WNBA Breast Health Awareness program has focused on generating awareness and educating women about breast cancer in addition to raising funds for the initiative.

WNBA FIT

Encourages girls and women of all ages to learn more about their bodies and the importance of physical fitness through programs related to health, fitness, nutrition and self-esteem. Programming inspires girls and women to get started on "being fit" through small changes in their daily routine.

TThe NBA FIT/ WNBA FIT Challenge is free for boys and girls ages 14 and under, and encourages participants to maintain healthy, active lifestyles. The competition will offer more than 100,000 youngsters the chance to demonstrate their physical fitness through a time-based fitness course that includes line sprints, jump rope, speed revolutions, wall passes, and defensive shuffles. The challenge tests participants' speed, strength, agility, and overall physical fitness.

Dribble, Dish & Swish is free for boys and girls ages 7 to 12 and encourages participants to be active and to maintain healthy lifestyles. The competition gives participants the opportunity to showcase their fundamental basketball skills and physical fitness through a time-based, half-court obstacle course. The local champion in each age and gender group will receive an all-expense paid trip to NBA All-Star 2010 in Dallas, Texas, where they will compete in the national finals for the chance serve as a ball kid at a select NBA All-Star event.

READ TO ACHIEVE

A year-round, league-wide initiative that promotes the values of reading and on-line literacy and encourages families and adults to read regularly with young children. The program includes special reading time-outs, the donation of books and literacy materials to schools and community based organizations, and the creation of Reading and Learning Centers and Reading Corners throughout the world.

VACCINES FOR TEENS

A national multimedia campaign designed to educate teens and their parents about the importance of vaccination against, potentially life-threatening diseases.
